

WINTER 2005 HONORS COLLOQUIUM
“INNOCENTS ABROAD”

106 Cockefair Hall / Wednesday 3-3h50
Prof. Gayle Levy (levyg@umkc.edu or x. 2820)
Office hours: W 1: 30-2:45; F 11-12:00 (211 Scofield Hall) or by appointment

Jan. 12: Welcome back and organization of Discussion Sections, etc.

Jan. 19: Hayley Rees, Youth Friends charter school coordinator: “Working as a Tutor in a Charter School.”

International Innocents

Jan. 26: Prof. Jim Sheppard, Philosophy: “Ecological Citizenship, Environmental Ethics, and the Challenge of Global Environmental Policy.”

Feb. 2: Prof. Bibie Chronwall, Associate Vice Provost and School of Biological Sciences: “So, Where Do You Come From? The Joys and Hazards of Living with a Foreign Language.”

Feb. 9: Prof. Felicia Londré, Theater: “Adventures in Theatre going in the USSR.”

Feb. 16: Marie Little, pediatric nurse practitioner and medical director at St. Vincent’s Day Care Clinic: “Health Care Issues in Underdeveloped Nations.”

Feb. 23: discussion

March 2: UA Coordinators (JR Benmuvhar, Lindsey Jones, Hannah Lofthus, Tim Stuckmeyer, Jennifer Wood): “Getting Paid to Help Kids; You Too Can Work at UA!”

March 9: No Class: Bon Voyage! (Spring Break)

Innocents and the Other

March 16: Ms. Karen Paisley, KC Repertory Theater: “A Discussion of A Young Lady From Rwanda.”

March 23: Prof. Keith Ashman, Physics: TBA

March 30: discussion

April 6: Prof. Robert Cohon, Nelson-Atkins Museum and Art History: “Fakes, Frauds, and Scholars.”

Undergrads in the World of Research

April 13: Presentations of Senior Honors Theses: small group presentations and posters.

April 20: Senior Honors Theses: same format

April 27: Senior Honors Theses: same format