Attention All Honors Students

Due to an accidental oversight, we did not collect nominations for this year's Honors Club Co-President. If you have anyone you think would be a qualified nominee, please send them to J.R. at jrbckd@umkc.edu no later than the Tuesday Before. Voting will take place at the Honors BBQ unless otherwise told.

Welcome everyone to the 2005-2006 school year! I do hope that everyone's summer was enjoyable. I know many of our honor students received interns and scattered them all throughout the country. Now we are all calm and collected and ready to take on a whole new year of learning and community building. (hint the sarcastic tone with the "calm and collected part). As you read above, nominations for the Honors Club Co-President are ready to be received. Our new theme of Ethics shall replaced last years theme of Innocence abroad, and I am certain we will once again enjoy the speakers. How the Honors Update works is very simple. Anything that is written on the board during colloquium, sent to me via e-mail, or asked to put down during colloquium is posted in the honors update. All requests must be in my inbox by the day after colloquium (Thursday). Usually, I try to send out the newsletter on Friday, but at times school overrides my schedule and it will be a day late. If you have any questions concerning the UMKC Honors Update, please e-mail too! I hope we are all ready for an exciting, busy, but fun year!

During Colloquium, we discussed options for our newest Faculty Fellow's, Prof. Shannon Jackson, project. The four that were brought up were:

- 1) Missouri/Kansas Honors Conference
- 2) Speakers Bureau/Outreach with High Schools
- 3) Assist with Jazz District Project
- 4) No special project, assist with e-journal

If there are any more ideas for Prof. Jackson's project, please e-mail them to J.R. at jrbckd@umkc.edu no later than Tuesday, Sept 6th so that they may be voted upon the next day in colloquium.
