I. On February 19 at 7:00 there will be an opportunity for honors students to see The Women's Center production of Vagina Monologues. You can meet at Pierson Auditorium at 6:45. You can find the LLC schedule attached to this weeks newsletter.

II. If you would like to participate in the editing of papers for the Honor Program's very own academic journal, Lucerna, then please contact Dr. Sheppard for more information. There will also be a sign up sheet in colloquium on Wednesday.

III. Please turn in your contracts for WS07 by Feb. 9. You may either give them to Prof. Sheppard in Colloquium or bring them to Sally in 204 Haag Hall.

IV. If you are interested in learning more about the Honors Study Abroad Program in Uppsala, Sweden, (July 2007) please email Prof. Lynda Payne (the director) at paynel@umkc.edu

V. All honors student have access to free tickets to all UMKC Theater Department plays in addition to many plays at KC Rep. Attached is the information sheet on the latter. To get a Theater Dept. pass, go see Sally Conrad in 204 Haag Hall.

VI. The Center for International Academic Programs is currently accepting applications for study abroad scholarships. Applications will be due beginning March 1st and range in award amount from $250 for summer and up to $5000 for semester. For more information, go to:

VII. In the attached announcement you will see some of the great work of the Honors 350 students! They cordially invite all students to submit proposals to make UMKC more environmentally sustainable. The projects can be of any scope and you can work individually or in groups. Winning proposals will get published in Lucerna and the top two will be awarded prize money. Also, please tell your friends about this great opportunity to think creatively and help UMKC be more environmentally responsible."
