

Honors Newsletter
29 January 2008

- 1) There will be an important Lucerna meeting on Thursday Jan. 31 at 5pm in the Honors House. Please attend if you are working on Lucerna this semester. Email Prof. Herron (herronj@umkc.edu) if you have any questions.
- 2) The Honors House is a space that all honors students can use at anytime for studying, discussion groups, meetings, hanging out... It is located at 5317-19 Holmes and the code to get in both the front and 3rd floor doors (the north door on the 3rd floor) is xxxx.
- 3) Discussion groups:
 - a. Chemistry 211/212 (Tues. 4-4:50 at Muddy's Café on 51st and Oak)
 - b. Spanish 211 and higher (Fridays 10-10:50—contact Matt Varon, mvpmc@umkc.edu, for the room number)
 - c. Macro and Micro Econ (Thurs. 7pm-8pm in the Honors Lounge of the Honors L/LC in Oak Street Hall)
 - d. French (Friday 5-6pm at Muddy's Café)
 - e. German TBA
 - f. Philosophy 210 (Thurs. 4-4:50 in Honor's House) beginning Jan. 31. Please read "Death" by Thomas Nagel
 - g. Spanish 110 and 120 TBA
- 4) If you signed up to see To Kill a Mockingbird on Feb. 5 and cannot attend, please tell Prof. Levy (levyg@umkc.edu) because someone may want your ticket. If you did not sign and up and would like to go, please contact Prof. Levy.
- 5) Important!!! If you intend to graduate in May or August 2008, please email Prof. Levy. Please state whether you are planning to participate in commencement or not.
- 6) If you plan to begin a senior honors thesis in Summer or Fall 2008, please contact Prof. Levy.
- 7) Contracts for WS 08 are due to Prof. Levy or Sally Conrad (204 Haag) by Feb. 14.

8) Peace Corps will be in Kansas City Thursday, February 7th, 2008.

With over 3,800 openings this year, the Peace Corps is an incredible opportunity for recent college graduates to gain an enhanced world perspective making them more competitive in the job market. Today, the Peace Corps is in need of Volunteers for projects in education, business, information technology, health, environment, agriculture, and community services. After graduation, you could find yourself working in one of 70 countries around the globe making a difference in the lives of others.

Information Meeting

Thursday, February 7, 2008

6:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Linda Hall Library - Auditorium

5109 Cherry St.

Kansas City, MO 64110