

History
Department
Student
Research
Presentations

Fall 2017

December 15, 2017
12:30-5:00 pm
Miller Nichols Library
Room 325

1:00, Remarks on Undergraduate Presentations

Gary Ebersole, Department of History

David Stenger

A Final Quest Concerning the Rectification of Principles

Mara Pacubas

U.S. MASH Nurses in Korea, 1950-1953

Jude Carmona

The History of 'Hiroshima Is a Lie': The Dissemination of the Nuclear Weapons Hoax Conspiracy Theory

Maria Olson

Wife, Mother, Mistress: The Formation of Identity by English Gentry Women in the Late Medieval Period

Tyler Hampton

The Influence of Pedagogical Practices on Government in Ancient Sparta and Rome

2:15, Remarks on Graduate Presentations

Sandra Enríquez, Department of History

Annie Derrell

Well-Born: Sir Francis Galton and the Birth of Eugenics

Joseph Ballegeer

Morty: Life and Times of a Mortgage during the Government Sponsored Enterprises' Targeted Purchases, 1992-2005

Kate Carpenter

Access to Nature, Access to Health: The Government Free Bathhouse at Hot Springs National Park

Randi Cline

Girls' Unruly Acts and Southern Virtues: Student Resistance and Accommodation at Southern Seminary, a Preparatory School, 1918-1930

Javier Kelty

America's Nightmare: The News Media and Rap Industry's Criminal Portrayals of Tupac Shakur, 1992-1996

Taylor Bye

'On the Side of Freedom and Loyalty': Radical Republican Politics in Post-Civil War Kansas City

Elizabeth Hartzler

Speaking Truth to Power: Power, Public Memory, and the Liberty Memorial

4:00, Closing Remarks and Award Presentations

Diane Mutti Burke, Chair, Department of History